What's That About?

Readers write or email "What's That About" editor Liz Bradbury with questions about GLBT issues.

Dear WTA Readers, Update: A few months ago WTA was asked if Civil Unions from Vermont would also be recognized in Connecticut. Connecticut passed same-sex Civil Union rights earlier this year. Connecticut declared this month that Vermont Civil Unions would be recognized in CT. Domestic Partner rights may also be recognized.

Dear WTA, I've seen that one of the recommended donation sites for hurricane relief is a Pat Robertson (anti-GLBT) charity. Where can we donate and be sure the money won't go to anti-gay agencies? Signed, Wanting to Help

Dear Helpful, The (pro-GLBT) Gill Foundation has promised to match any contribution up to $250 (to a total of a million dollars) for direct aid to hurricane victims (<http://www.gillfoundation.org/>). Also Ellen DeGeneres has gotten Warner Bros., the producers of her show, to match contributions up a total of $500,000 (ellen.warnerbros.com/showinfo/hurricane). The National Gay and Lesbian Task Force also has a web site with recommended places to donate (www.thetaskforce.org/aboutus/HurricaneRelief).

Dear WTA, I read this bizarre report that said Allentown was 12th in the list of the 25 most conservative US cities? How could that be? Signed, Confused

Dear Confused, It was a mistake. The Berkeley, Calif.-based Bay Area Center For Voting Research examined the voting patterns of 237 American cities with populations over 100,000, and based its results on the percentage of voters choosing a liberal or conservative candidate in the 2004 presidential election. But the survey group reversed Allentown's numbers, totally skewing the list. They said Allentown went 33% for Kerry and 67% for Bush. WRONG!!! Allentown went 67% for Kerry. This was a really foolish error because all the other conservative cities were in places like Texas and Arizona. Allentown was the only North Eastern city on the list. You'd think that glaring difference would make them check their figures. They were sent emails pointing out their error.

RAGS TO RICHES TAKE THE FIRST STEP

by Denise McKelvey

Dear Denise, Between the baby's expenses and health insurance for my partner and me (we both work in healthcare, where domestic partner bens are not available) and the increase in gas prices, we are feeling a financial pinch. We're currently considering a new auto. How do you feel about the hybrids? Signed, Squeezed

Dear Squeezed, Trading in your old car solely for the purpose of getting a car with better gas mileage rarely pays off. Paying an exorbitant amount for a hybrid, for instance, to save money on gas, often requires years to truly recoup the savings, especially when some of these cars are going for over-sticker prices. But, if you're jonesing for a hot hybrid, like the Toyota Prius at 60 mpg, remember the car that might be on a long waiting list could be located more easily on the internet out of your buying area.

Edmunds.com, a good online resource for auto reviews, buying tips and new and used car deals, has compiled a list of the 10 most fuel-efficient cars currently sold in the US, based on the Environmental Protection Agency's miles-per-gallon ratings, listed as city/highway ratio. The Top 10 list is (most ratings are with manual transmission): 1. Honda Insight-61/66; 2. Toyota Prius-60/51; 3. Honda Civic Hybrid-45/51; 4. Volkswagen Golf TDI-38/46, Volkswagen Jetta TDI-38/46, Volkswagen New Beetle TDI-38/46; 5. Honda Civic EX-36/44; 6. Toyota Echo-35/42; 7. Toyota Corolla-32/4; 8.. Scion xA-32/37; 9. Honda Accord Hybrid-30/37, Pontiac Vibe-30/36, Toyota Matrix-30/36, Scion xB-31/35; 10. Dodge Neon-29/36, Toyota Celica GT-29/36, Volkswagen New Beetle TDI-38/46.

You may have noticed many cars on the list are not among the priciest hybrids, yet get excellent gas mileage. These cars will not be selling for inflated prices, which means you will save on the purchase and gasoline at the same time.

Changing Tax Laws for New Hybrid Buyers- Right now, and through Dec. 31, tax law provides new hybrid buyers with up to $2,000 in tax deductions. However, if you wait until January 1, a new law will replace the deductions with tax credits that can reach $3,400. Tax experts are quick to point out that credits are significantly more valuable than deductions. Why? Because deductions merely reduce the amount of income that is subject to tax, but a credit reduces the tax owed on a dollar-for-dollar basis. In real dollars this means a $2,000 credit saves $2,000.

Yet there's more to the equation. By using the Department of Energy's web site and steering to the Hybrid Electric Vehicle (HEV) Cost Calculator Tool, the numbers show a relatively small savings incurred by using a typical hybrid vehicle -- generally between $300-$600 a year, when calculated over a 7-year period. However, the resale value may be higher for the hybrid. And environmentally, by driving the Honda Civic Hybrid for seven years you'd save planet Earth about 16,178 lbs. of carbon dioxide emissions, which is in itself a worthy reason for choosing a hybrid. Purchase a Community Shopping Day Admission Ticket from any member of the Lehigh Valley Gay Men's Chorus for $10 by October 25, 2005 and save 15% to 20% off most purchases on November 1st. The best part is that the entire $10 will go to the chorus. Contact any member of the LVGMC for information or to purchase an Admission Ticket. 610-366-3320.

The members of LVGMC are preparing for their "Seasonal Sensations" concert on November 19. Visit the chorus website www.lvgmc.org for concert information. The chorus seeks concert sponsors, program advertisers and volunteers to assist during the concert. Call 610-366-2205 for more information.

HATE CRIMES BILL PASSES HOUSE

The US House of Representatives added language to legislation to extend existing federal hate crimes laws that already cover crimes motivated by race, color, national origin and religion to include crimes based on actual or perceived gender, sexual orientation, disability and gender identity. The vote on the amendment was 223 to 199. The full bill later passed the House overwhelmingly. The legislation must now be passed by the Senate.

HAVEN HALLOWEEN PARTY

HAVEN is having a Halloween party on Saturday Oct. 15 & invites all GLBTA youth between 14-20 to come in costume or however they feel most comfortable. Haven seeks donations of food to serve at this event, fabulous spooky decor to spice things up, discounted DJ referrals, and volunteers. To help, contact HAVEN.

- Frankly, My Dear, I Do Give A Damn...just not about you.
- Toto, I've a Feeling We're Not in Kansas Any More...so, first stop, the pound. Second stop, the Tart Shoppe. Third stop, Trump Tower. I'm sick to death of this braids and ruby slipper crap.
- May the Force Be With You... and also with you.
- Play With It Again, Sam.
- I'll Be Back...to deny gay marriage rights in California.
- Fasten Your Seat Belts...it's going to be a long three years.
- But ya are, Cheney. Ya are... only the Vice President.
- No More Wire Hangers Ever!!! ...Now be a good girl, Christina, and fetch mommy a Stoli neat, four fingers.
- All Gay Men Are Named Either Mark, Rick or Steve...or Tom, Dick, Jim, John, Mike, Pedro, Juan or Tito.
- Damn the Torpedoes...and screw the missiles, too.
- Love is a Many Splendored Thing...but, only if you have a pre-nup.
- If You Build it They Will Come...and if you build it tight, they will come quicker.
- A Woman Pretending To Be A Man Pretending To Be A Woman...or as we like to call it, Thursday night at the Stonewall.
- If You Can Dodge a Wrench, You Can Dodge a Ball and if you can dodge an idiot, you can dodge the draft.
- The Calla Lilies Are In Bloom Again...what the hell is a calla lily? Flowers? Then can't you just say flowers??!
- Are You Trying to Seduce Me, Mrs. Robinson? ...No, I always wear this outfit around the house. Duh!
- Don't Go Near The Water...at least not near that little warm yellow spot over there.
- Stella!!!! What's for dinner? Yo want me to pick up something at Mickey D's? ..and what the f**k happened to my shirt? Jeesh! I Coulda Been a contenda...oops wrong movie.
- Okay, Mr. DeMille, I'm Ready For My Close-up. ...Oh, honey, no, you're not, really. Listen to me, here's the mirror. A close-up is the one thing you're not ready for.
- I Heard He's A Bisexual - He Likes Boys and Men...not that there's anything wrong with that.

PLANET*Parenthoodby Earl and Donnie Snyder
donneearlucas@msn.comCOMING OUT AGAIN

National Coming Out Day is October 11th. Our family is already out to friends, family and co-workers. Recently, we took a bolder step.

Donnie, Lucas, and I were featured as a GLBT family in a photo in the local newspaper. I was even working at the hospital the day that particular newspaper was delivered to each patient. The photo made it up to the front desk of the unit and was placed along with all the other pictures of workers' families and children.

It was a scary experience, but worth it. I really wondered if I would have a problem with any of my patients, and if I did, how would I handle it? My co-workers all know of my family and to my knowledge, are accepting. I had some concerns about the reaction I might have with the physicians. To my surprise, I only had positive responses to the newspaper picture and article.

Coming out has helped enrich our lives. It has gained our son family, friends, and a wonderful network of support. Honesty is appealing to most people. Our "unique" family structure tends to be impressive to many. In our experience, all have reacted positively to us. Our coming out has given others the chance to know what a gay family with children is really like. Coming out has been both enlightening to us and to those around us.

WE WON... ALLENTOWN'S ANTI-DISCRIMINATION ORDINANCE STAYS!

The city of Allentown has won the appeal in the Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court in support of the Allentown Anti-Discrimination Ordinance. That means the lawsuit to overturn Allentown's Anti-Discrimination Ordinance's inclusion of sexual orientation and gender identity has been unsuccessful. We had lost in the lower court but the higher court found for us in the appeal. The anti-gay side had 30 days to appeal to the State Supreme Court, but they did not do so and the time is up. Thanks go out to the excellent (pro-bono!) work of the city's legal defense team led by Dan Anders of Pepper Hamilton LLP (see page 7 for the rest of the team).

INTERWEAVE EVENTS

A regional Interweave Fall Retreat is set for October 14-16 in Ocean City, Maryland, at the Carousel Hotel on the beach. Last year's event featured drumming, crafts, indoor swimming & ice-skating, group-cooked meals, and spirituality & GLBT themed discussions as well as spectacular views of real life dolphins & rainbows. This year promises similar experiences. Both families & singles welcome. For more info, call 202-882-1874.

Locally, UUCLV's Interweave continues to meet after service on the 3rd Sunday of every month. More casual meetings will be held at local restaurants. The next one is scheduled for 12:30 pm at Nawab, the Indian restaurant in Southside Bethlehem.. For more info, email allysondiane@hotmail.com or call UUCLV.

SCOTT SAYS
By Scott LaubnerCOUNTRY MOUSE,
CITY MOUSE

Start spreading the news, I'm leaving today. (Well not exactly today.) I want to be a part of it: New York, New York. For a long time I have been fascinated, entranced even, by this city. Three months ago an opportunity presented itself for me to live and work in the city that never sleeps. The retirement community where I work in Bethlehem has a sister community in Manhattan. I heard through the internal gay grapevine that there was an opening and I quickly sent my resume to the New York regional recruiter. After one interview in the Lehigh Valley, I went into New York for a second one. The interview went very, very well. After the interview concluded I took the subway down to Greenwich Village. On Seventh Avenue I saw the actor Willem Dafoe dropping off his dry cleaning and I thought to myself, "I am going to take that as a good omen." Last month they offered me the position and I start in the middle of October. So from now on country mice, this city mouse will be reporting to you all the happenings from the town so nice they named it twice. I'll be in touch!

ALL TOGETHER NOW EVENT

Lutheran Seminary Professor Rev. Dr. Barbara Lundblad will speak on "Blessings and Backlash: Stumbling Towards Wholeness" at an All Together Now event at 3 PM on Sunday November 6 at Wesley Methodist Church at 2540 Center Street in Bethlehem. ## LIZ OUT LOUD FINISHING THE ART PIECE

By Liz Bradbury

TRISH'S COLUMN

We went to see Lily Tomlin at Zoellner and she was great. Some of her top lines:

-- "I see Bethlehem is considering a casino where the Bethlehem Steel used to be... (hissing from the audience)...well yeah, we'll see what happens, but heck if they do put it in, the City's new slogan can be: What Happens in Bethlehem Stays in Bethlehem..."

-- "They were telling me about Lehigh University and it seems that it's been 33 years since the last all male class graduated... and I also hear that Lehigh is supposed to be the number 3 party school in the country...apparently the novelty of becoming coed still hasn't worn off."

-- (As Trudy the Bag Lady) "People see my shopping cart full of stuff I got out of the garbage and they think I'm crazy for collecting it all...but hey, what about the people who bought this stuff in the first place?"

-- "I worry about things...yeah, I really do... I worry about George Bush saying he feels good about the government response to the Katrina Disaster... I used to worry about all the lies Bush has told us...who would have ever thought the most frightening thing he'd say would actually be the truth?"

-- "It turns out that 94% of the genes in Chimpanzees and humans are about the same...it turns out the only real difference between us is... that we know this and Chimps don't."

-- One of her classic lines: "The other day I bought a waste basket and carried it home in a paper bag. And when I got home, I took the waste basket out of the bag...and put the bag in the waste basket."

-- "Let's take an audience survey ... raise your hand...how many of you think your parents never really understood you? OK, now...how many of you think your life would have been far more complicated if your parents HAD understood you?"

-- "I'm worried about same-sex marriage, I mean, if I and all the other homosexuals really begin to take on the characteristics of heterosexuals...it will be a terrible slippery-slope..."

ALLENTOWN HUMAN RELATIONS COMMISSION 2005 AWARD WINNERS

INDIVIDUALS - Salisa Lynn Berrien, Creator of STRIVE, Students Striving Together for Excellence; Dianne Karcha, Pastor, chaplain at Luther Crest, and volunteer with numerous organizations; Alan Jennings, Executive director of the Community Action Committee of the Lehigh Valley. Larry Williams, Executive director of the Municipal Opera Company.

Groups - Allentown Human Relations Ordinance Legal Defense Team: Led by Dan Anders of Pepper Hamilton LLP and including Christopher J. Huber, Michelle Marx, Thomas B. Schmidt III and Nathan D. Stump of Pepper Hamilton; Malcolm Gross and John Gross of Gross, McGinley, LeBar & Eaton, LLP; Edward M. Posner, Viktoriya Meyerov and Mary Catherine Roper of Drinker, Biddle, & Reath LLP; Stacey Sobel and Cynthia Schneider of the Center for Gay and Lesbian Civil Rights; Elisabeth Shuster and Margaret D. Blough of the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission; Lawrence E. Franklin of the American Civil Liberties Union of PA; Craig Dietz and Steven Dade, Office of City Solicitor City of Harrisburg; Robert Brown, Patricia Siemiontowski and Francis Burianek of the City of Allentown; and the Honorable Edward N. Cahn of Blank Rome LLP. This talented legal team worked for years, at no cost, to defend successfully Allentown City's anti-discrimination ordinance.

The Bullying Prevention Program Team: Marci Ronald, Sarah Kersh, Freda Rafes of the Crime Victims Council; Gretchen Saul of the Allentown School District; and Sarah Niebler, Lehigh University Community Fellow at the Muhlenberg College Polling Institute. This team designed and implemented the Crime Victims Council's Bullying Prevention Program in Lily's show was 100 minutes, and we wished it would have gone on and on.

When we first got to the lobby, there were these cards that people could write questions on. At the end of the show, instead of an encore, Lily would read off about ten questions on stage and would respond with hilarious answers. Of course I wrote one, it said, "How long did it take to grow your hair back after the Genuine Faux Crystal Pendant give away?"

See about ten years ago Lily did this very funny promotion to get people to buy sets of her videos...if you got a set she would send you this necklace with this little plastic pendant that had three of her hairs in it. So, of course we got one and I was wearing it to the show. Lily answered my question on stage. And she told the whole story about the 'Genuine Faux Crystal Pendant'. She explained that it was really hard to make the pendants because the hair burnt up in the hot plastic, so I turned out they could only make a few of them. She said the whole thing was an art piece...not just the pendant, but the promotion and the certificate of authenticity and everything.

Anyway, later after the show, we came back to Zoellner and we saw about 5 "fans" standing at the entrance of the garage where a big limo was waiting. So we waited there too and Lily came out!!!! And she was great... we were pretty flabbergasted. And she laughed out loud that I had the pendant and then said I was a collector's item. See picture.

A tiny number of the people (maybe just one) at the show were critical of Lily when she suggested that Bush may not have been a paragon of leadership during Katrina. Did they think an edgy lesbian comic from the sixties would let W off the hook? Thank the stars for Lily Tomlin, and her ability to remind us what intelligent life in the universe really means. It's you, Lily, it's you.

Allentown School District high schools, which works to detect bullying and violence and encourages empathy, respect and diversity understanding, through educational presentations. Part of the program includes a comprehensive survey of student's experiences and attitudes to better address school system needs. This may be the only high school Bullying Prevention Program in the nation that works school-wide to reach all students.

Organization - Theatre Outlet: For more than 15 years the Theatre Outlet has been a home of cultural diversity fully representative of the rich ethnic, generational, racial and cultural experience of and for the people of the city of Allentown. Emerging artists have worked alongside veterans in an ensemble driven collaborative process which has provided opportunities for the entire community including a continually growing base for Latino, Asian, African American and gay and lesbian artists. Theatre Outlet's past productions have told the stories and enhanced the lives of a broadly diverse population.

Special Recognition of Service will be presented posthumously to Claire Elyse Michaels, Commissioner beloved friend, colleague, mentor, advocate, and chaplain.

The AHRC awards banquet will be on Tuesday evening October 18, 5:30 pm at the Crowne Plaza Hotel, Allentown. For ticket information: Gwyn Parker - 610-882-7028; or Nichola Butterfield - 610-437-7616.

RACHEL THOMPSON ART SHOW

Rachel Thompson, local human rights activist, writer and artist, is having a solo art show, October 2 through 31 at the Quadrant bookstore and cafe at 20 North Third Street, Easton, just off Center Square. The show is, in part, a retrospective of Rachel's watercolors of the last 20 years, featuring her personal favorites along with her newest work. The first $200 of the proceeds will be donated to HAVEN by the artist. There will be a reception, Sunday October 9, 2 to 4 PM. Light refreshments will be served. Rachel Thompson says of the fun and eclectic bookstore / cafe, "If you love books, great food and art, the Quadrant is a great place to visit." Contact the Quadrant at 610-252-1188. Rachel's Email is Rachelpaints@aol.com.

SUPPORT FOR MINIMUM WAGE

Metropolitan Community Church announces its endorsement of the "Lehigh Valley Campaign to Raise the Minimum Wage." The campaign is sponsored by 2nd Harvest Food Bank & Community Action Committee of the LV. In endorsing this campaign, MCCLV "believes the minimum wage should be increased in Pennsylvania to $7 an hour with cost of living adjustment." The Valley Gay Press and PA Diversity Network also support this campaign.

We believe it would improve the quality of life in the Lehigh Valley if all people were treated fairly and protected from unfair discrimination based upon actual or perceived: race, color, religion, national origin, gender, age, place of birth, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, family status, age disability or use of a guide animal. In areas of employment, housing, and public accommodation.

QUOTE #1

"My only regret about being gay is that I repressed it so long. I surrendered my youth to the people I feared when I could have been out there loving someone. Don't make that mistake yourself. Life's too damn short."

-- Quote by Armistead Maupin, (author of 'Tales of the City,') that appears on Starbucks Coffee cups. The Christian right has called for a boycott of Starbucks.

QUOTE #2

"...I especially like how, the day after the hurricane, instead of flying to Louisiana, you flew to San Diego to party with your business peeps. Don't let people criticize you for this -- after all, the hurricane was over and what the heck could you do, put your finger in the dike!"

--Michael Moore in an open letter to George W. Bush

QUOTE #3

"...I don't think anyone anticipated the breach of the levees," George W. Bush told Diane Sawyer when he finally arrived in New Orleans.

...In June 2004, Walter Maestri, emergency management chief for Jefferson Parish, fretted to The Times-Picayune in New Orleans: "It appears that the money has been moved in the president's budget to handle homeland security and the war in Iraq, and I suppose that's the price we pay. Nobody locally is happy that the levees can't be finished, and we are doing everything we can to make the case that this is a security issue for us."

QUOTE #4

"...Gay marriage has begun, and life has not changed for the citizens of the commonwealth, with the exception of those who can now marry, this (anti-same-sex marriage Massachusetts Constitutional) amendment which was an appropriate measure or compromise a year ago, is no longer, I feel, a compromise today." -- State Senator Brian Lees, a Republican who had been a co-sponsor of the amendment, acknowledging that the effort to mount a Massachusetts State Constitutional Amendment has been defeated in the State Senate because many who were for it have now reversed their votes. The vote was 157-39 against the anti-gay Amendment.

The swan couple known as Romeo and Juliet at the Boston Public Gardens has finally been able to come out publicly as same-sex partners.*

Juliet told this reporter:

'We thought everyone knew,' Rosmerta added:

'Gee, anyone could tell we're a lesbian couple...

We always wear the same outfit.'
